CAREER HIGHLIGHTS / SPECIALTY OVERVIEW

After graduating from the University of Virginia School of Law in 1986, John joined the law firm of Bradley Arant Rose & White LLP, Alabama's largest law firm (now known as Bradley Arant Boult Cummings LLP), in its Birmingham office. His practice focused on real estate and commercial law, and he became a partner in that firm in 1993, and was elected as a member of its Executive Committee in that same year. In 1998, he became Chair of the Real Estate Practice Group, a position he held until leaving private practice in 2005.

In February 2005, John was named the Chief Operating Officer of Equity Resources, LLC, a Birmingham based regional real estate development company. In June of 2007, he joined Graham & Co as Senior Vice President, Finance and Law. John played a crucial role in the creation of GCP in 2013, and today he advises on the company's debt and equity transactions, coordinates its legal work, and assists in a variety of ways with new development projects.
